Themed with New Opportunities within the Framework of “One Belt and One Road” Strategy, the Seminar will highlight policies, best practices and development trends of Chinese-ASEAN cross-border higher education and vocational education, as well as demands and expectations of partner countries and institutions for such cooperation. The Seminar will offer a platform for all stakeholders, including governments, education providers and corporate partners to identify needs, exchange information and experience and seek collaboration.

We look forward to welcoming you in the 8th CAECW in colorful Guizhou with over 1000 guests from education sectors, research organizations, media, and enterprises of ASEAN countries and China.
